

Knee Imaging Course

Reading list:

In preparation of the knee talks pre-reading that would be helpful includes:

Review of common pathoanatomy if not familiar really in terms of anatomy to help with image recognition for example:

- meniscal anatomy and meniscal ligaments
- ligament anatomy
- patellofemoral joint anatomy
- chondral anatomy
- common muscles - popliteus, biceps femoris

Websites:

<http://www.freitasrad.net/pages/atlas/Knee/Knee.html>

<http://w-radiology.com/knee-mri.php>

<https://radiopaedia.org/cases/anatomy-quiz-mri-knee>

Image requesting supporting paperwork that you may be interested to read prior to the course too:

<https://www.gcc-uk.org/UserFiles/Docs/Clinical%20imaging%20requests.pdf>

<https://www.rcr.ac.uk/publication/standards-reporting-and-interpretation-imaging-investigations>

<http://nww.irefer.nhs.uk/> (NHS network access only)