

MACP AGM 2021

8th November 2021, 6pm-8pm

Report:	Knowledge Translation Officer
Committee Member:	Samantha Simmonds
Date of report:	24th September 2021

Overview of Year

Linked with potential clinical interest groups. Launch (30th September) first CIG - Rheumatology CIG.

Linking with comms and PDC re promoting MACP – courses/member benefits/publications

Engaged with members to promote their research at VPUK on website and social media

In progress of supporting the launch for AP standards

Progress against organisation's strategic aims

Supporting developing communication channels to disseminate information to members via improving delivery of information via social media/website/podcasts

Promoting and developing membership benefits

Progress against sub-speciality strategic aims

Current development of documentation for sensory testing of saddle region in collaboration with POGP

Development of member benefits alongside comms

Sourced discounted rates for MACP members for clinical tools MSK

Framework, ready to launch after CIG launch

Discussions around developing safety card for cervical myelopathy – currently ongoing

Supporting the development of CIG and ongoing relationship with MACP

Key Development Plans for 21/22

To re-engage Knowledge translation sub committee

Continue to develop member benefits

Support the exec with influencing MSK AP accreditation / standard development and delivery

Continue to add to the website supporting members on their research journey and promoting through social media

? Possibility of a study day in collaboration with the PDC