Brief biography, including any relevant experiences relevant to the role that you are interested in:

I am Consultant Physiotherapist at St George's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust and Hon. Associate Professor at St George's University of London, UK and Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia, and Professor of Research at Western University Canada. HI have published research investigating persistent and neuropathic pain, complexity in MSK conditions, non-medical prescribing, advanced and consultant practice, psychologically informed practice and rehabilitation. In collaboration with HEE and the MSK-Partnership UK I led the standards team for the FCP roadmap and MSK Advanced Practice Standards. I have worked in the UK, NZ and Australia within complex rehabilitation, elite sport, tertiary pain management, orthopaedic, neurosciences/surgery, spinal and rheumatology clinics. I have a keen interest in the complexity of pain, sleep, wellbeing, and human performance and has lectured both nationally and internationally about complexity, pain and spinal and musculoskeletal diagnosis, management and rehabilitation.

Over the last 3 years I have worked with the MACP and IFOMPT in the strategy and projects surrounding advanced practice in the UK and internationally. I am keen to join the MACP EC to continue this work.
